- Native Arabic with working English — able to coach clients of varied nationalities.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Personal Trainer & Online Coach — Self-Employed

Saudi Arabia | 2011 — Present

- Designed individual training and nutrition programmes for 1,200+ clients, built from body measurements and each client's goal, training level and available time.
- Ran structured weekly check-ins covering measurement review, calorie adjustment and training-load changes based on measured physical response.
- Developed a three-phase, 90-day transformation programme — foundation, change, consolidation — and delivered it to successive client intakes.
- Handled specific cases including lower-back pain, significant fat loss, and weight gain and hypertrophy for lean body types.
- Coached remote clients through written plans and video-based review to correct movement execution.
- Built a continuously renewing client base on past client results and personal referral, with no advertising spend.

Personal Trainer

Al-Mohtarefoon Gym — Saudi Arabia

- Delivered one-to-one and group training sessions on the gym floor, supervising exercise execution, movement safety and injury prevention.
- Prepared athletes for bodybuilding competition across different height and weight categories.
- Inducted new members into correct machine and free-weight use and built their first structured training routine.
- Coordinated with gym management on session scheduling and personal-training subscription follow-up.

Personal Trainer

Gymnasium — Saudi Arabia

- Built progressive training plans spanning complete beginners through to advanced trainees.
- Tracked client measurements and reviewed progress on regular cycles, revising plans against results.
- Provided practical nutrition guidance matched to each client's lifestyle and budget.
